

We have had the same home phone number for over fifteen years and have changed carriers once. We feel cell (or pc) phones should remain with the personal phone, not be changed by Verizon, Cingular, A.T.T. or whomever the carrier is. The technology is there, so please "un-handcuff" us from their pressures. Thank you.